JINDALEE GOLF CLUB INCORPORATED

MEMBER CODE OF CONDUCT

The Jindalee Golf Club was opened in 1967 to provide golfing facilities and a social venue for the residents of the Centenary Suburbs in particular and the community in general.

Membership of the club is by application that is approved by the Jindalee Golf Club Executive Committee. Once approved this membership carries certain responsibilities that must be observed by us all.

Members need to observe the following:

- To treat fellow members, guests and workers of the club with respect
- To conduct oneself in a proper manner at all times
- To not be intrusive of others
- To dress neatly and in accordance with the general rules of dress laid down by the Club
- To respect the facilities of the Club
- To display the highest personal standards and expect no less from others
- To support the objectives of the club and provide personal assistance if required and able to help
- To enjoy – and allow others to enjoy – all that membership of the Club provides
- To support and assist the current Executive Committee of the Club and Club staff in their efforts to manage the club on your behalf
- To abide by the rules and by-laws in force from time to time and agreed by you when making your membership application.

The Jindalee Golf Club Incorporated as a provider of alcohol and gaming facilities has social, legal and safety responsibilities to its members, visitors, and community in general, and for that purpose this code was developed some years ago and revised in 2012.

Those who break this code should expect that such behaviour will not be tolerated and that they might be considered not deserving Club membership resulting in suspension or termination of such membership.

The Executive Committee of Jindalee Golf Club – 2012 (revised April 2012)

Membership Applicant: I have read and accept the conditions specified in the Jindalee Golf Club Member Code of Conduct. I understand that breaching this code may result in disciplinary action being taken by the Executive Committee.
